

A pedantic gentleman who was lately travelling, and above common language, stopped at an inn to get himself and his horse refreshment. Seeing some boys when he alighted, he ordered one to 'circumambulate his horse two or three times round the mansion, then permit him to inhale a moderate quantity of aqueous particles, after which to give him proper vegetable nutriment, and he would make him pecuniary satisfaction.'

The boy being unaccustomed to such language, ran into the house, and told his father a prince was without who spoke French; the father comes out, and hearing the man scold, asked him what was the matter.—'Sir, (says the gentleman) I invoke all the genii aestivis that your offspring rejected me, and refused to put in practice my desires: Now, Sir, you I implore to enforce obedience upon them by correction, and then immediately provide some nutritious substance, to strengthen nature, cured over vegetable fuel, as I abhor the sulphurous tincture of minerals: remember to get me some stimulous with it.' The inkeeper, without hesitation, concluded him a madman, and with his lusty wife, seized and tied him hands and feet to a ring in the barn floor, then went for a doctor, who put a moderate blister on his back, which in three days brought him to his wandering senses.

Something like Shakespear.

SCENE—Pavement in front of Gibbs' Fortunate Lottery Office, No. 4d, south Third Street, with a full and distinct view of Lottery Schemes, Capital Prizes, invitations to purchase tickets, &c.
A number of persons (all in want of money) engaged in reading them—one comes forward and addresses the others as follows:
To buy or not to buy—that is the question?
Whether 'tis better, in the mind, to suffer The stings and arrows of outrageous fortune, Or buy a ticket at Gibbs' Lucky Office!
And thus adventuring end them—to risk—to gain:
No money—and, by a gain, to say we end
The heart ache; and the thousand natural shocks That flesh is heir to—is 'tis a consummation Devoutly to be wished—to risk—to gain:
To gain—perchance $7500.—Ay, there's the hope, For in that gain of CASH may joys may come,
When we have counted off this handsome prize, Must make us blest! Why do we pause?
Let come what may—we can but lose the price—The price the ticket cost us. Let's in at once and buy.

For who would bear the duns of each day's date,
The magistrate's writ, the sheriff's shoulder tap,
The dread of prison bounds—the laws' delay, The insolence of bailiffs, and the pangs That the poor debtor of the unfeeling takes,
When he might might his quicquid make,
With a price ticket.

What! no answer to this question, then 'tis plain,
'Tis evident, all wish to avoid the pain, So, in at once—Gentlemen please clear the way, Gibbs give us a ticket each—here, here's the pay,
And if we don't draw prizes—why it's no matter—We'll try in next class, and perhaps do better!
Thank you, (says Gibbs) 'tis a noble resolution, And those who gain you help the institution.
There! Tickets gentlemen, and may fortune tend them,
If your friends have not bought yet—thank ye to send 'em,
Good day gentlemen—beware! this augurs well, No danger now, but what your Tickets sell.

Lord Cochrane is said to be no longer in the service of any of the South American governments.

Dublin Police.—Counsellor M'Mahon attended at this office yesterday (Thursday the 12th inst.) and lodged information against Mary O'Conner, alias Conner, alias Wolf, alias O'Brien, alias Shannon, wife of Michael O'Conner, for having on the 10th inst. maliciously, wickedly, and without any manner of provocation, wantonly and forcibly duck-ed him in a tub of dirty suds or foul water, whereby his clothes were abused and destroyed, and his person seriously injured.—Dublin Freeman's Journal.

Four columns of a late London Courier are occupied with the trial of Lieut. Col. Gore, of the Coldstream Guards, who was charged with conducting an officer and a gentleman, in having, on the 2d of August, drank beer in a public house with corporal Samuel George. The trial lasted two days. The Court honorably acquitted Col. Gore, and pronounced his accusation would be difficult and malicious, and that a prosecution would be forthwith instituted against the corporal.

It is confirmed, that all the secret societies, including even the Freemasons, are prohibited in Russia, not by an Imperial Ukase, but by a ministerial rescript, to which the causes of this prohibition are explained at length.

Mr. Coke, the rich and hospitable English Commoner, has discontinued his Annual Agricultural Festivals, where for so many years he had entertained many hundred of the most distinguished friends of Agriculture, and Practical Farmers of England and of Europe. In a letter to one of his friends in America, he says, he has been compelled to reduce his rents thirty-three and a third per cent, and his tenants are known to be better able, than any others in England, to support the existing burdens on that class of British population.

The Marquis of Anglesey is spoken of as most likely to be appointed the Governor General to India.

STORM AT VENICE.—The following is an extract of a private letter from Venice.—"On the 25th of August, this city was visited with one of the most tremendous storms that we ever recollect to have heard of. The wind blew with an impetuosity impossible to be described, the howling of the tempest, the incessant streams of lightning, the prolonged rolling of the thunder, the crash of windows, chimneys, and tiles, carried terror into the most courageous hearts. The full consequences of this horrid affair are not yet known, but they must be dreadful."

Sedition.—A London paper says—"those who think the present times severe against seditious people, may not perhaps know, that in the reign of Charles I. a mayor of Norwich actually sent a fellow to prison, for saying the Prince of Wales was born without a shirt, and his dog was a son of a b—h."

Remarkable circumstances in the last Leg-Race, at Doncaster, Eng.—A trainer had four horses in the stake, which came in as 1st, 2d, 3d, and 4th. The most favorite horses were either distanced or lost, and the betting was 100 to 1 against the winner.—Camb. Chron.

The London Courier of the 19th Sept. has the following very humane remark of the Editor on the affairs of the Greeks: "We apprehend it can be no longer doubted, that the Greek cause in the Morea is at an end, and if so, the real friends of humanity will have occasion to rejoice." This is true "legitimate" feeling.

Treason with a Vengeance.—Whitaker, in his history of Manchester, relates, that in an early period of the English history, "two dogs suffered death for assaulting one of the lions of the Tower, on the principle of its being treason against royalty!!"

SMUGGLING.—The inducement to smuggle certain articles in England, Ireland and Scotland is so great, that every artifice is resorted to, and ingenuity is on the stretch to devise means that may elude the vigilance of the custom-house officers.
A brig called the Fortune was seized on the 30th of August last in Burnt Island roadstead, on board of which were found 5,153 lbs of tobacco, 10 do. snuff, upwards of 1000 gallons of gin, 1512 pounds black tea, and 72 packs of playing cards.
The place of concealment in the brig was accessible only from the stern. A false stern had been made, and a false stern post; and between that and the true stern were two places through which the contraband goods were conveyed into the lower part of the brig. The apparent cargo of the vessel was wood. So confident was the master that his real cargo could not be discovered, that he laid off Burnt Island a day and night, without taking any measure to land or secure the contraband goods. Agreeably to the revenue laws, the master, mate and the crew, are severally to pay 100 pounds, and be imprisoned until the sum is paid.

Of the Porto Rico Expedition, the New-York Mercantile Advertiser says: "We expect daily to hear interesting accounts from it. If it be true that the troops, which landed at Porto Rico belonged to the expedition, it is not improbable that they have, ere this, taken possession of the Island. It is said the whole force consists of 2,200 men, about nine hundred of which went from this city, Philadelphia and Baltimore.

South America.—By an arrival from Laguna, we learn that the Royal Gen. Morales had evacuated Maracaybo, and returned to his old quarters at Porto Cabello. It appears that Gen. Montilla had concentrated his forces at Rio de la Hache, and marched immediately against Morales, who must have fallen an easy prey, had he attempted to contest the point. The Patriot forces entered Maracaybo on the 19th of Sept. President Bolivar and Gen. D'Ereux were daily expected from Quito, when it was expected that active and vigorous measures would be concerted for a speedy reduction of Porto Cabello, and the consequent abolishment of royal power in that quarter.

Domestic Compendium.

On Thursday night about 12 o'clock, a fire was discovered in the lower apartment of a house in Front street near Race, which was soon extinguished by our active and vigilant firemen.

An old brick building at the corner of Thirteenth and Filbert, took fire on Tuesday evening last, but was extinguished before much injury was done.

Henry Sleeper, who drives a stage between this city and Germantown, is said to have travelled in the last 23 years of his occupation, 251,850 miles, equal to ten times round the globe!

Mr. J. Sanderson, of this city, has become the proprietor and editor of the Journal—Mr. Wilson, the previous editor, having been unable to dispose of his establishment in Ohio.

William H. Crawford, Esq. Secretary of the Treasury Department, arrived at Washington city, with his family, on Tuesday last, all in good health.

On Thursday morning a portion of the Church building in south Eighth street, for the Rev. Mr. Bedell gave way, when two of the workmen were severely injured.
They were taken to the Hospital and are expected to recover.

The Hon. Daniel Webster, is chosen a member of Congress for the Boston District, by a large majority.

The New-York Election terminated on Wednesday. Peter H. Wendover has been elected Sheriff of the city in the room of M. M. Noah, Esq.

New-Jersey.—The Legislature will probably be occupied a week or two longer before the session closes. Applications for three new Banks are before them—the division of the county of Sussex is a subject of importance—and the practicability of making a canal through the state, at the public expense, will require serious consideration.

Another Hoax!—M'Duffie and Cumming have been accused of shooting prematurely, and Macdiffe refused to shoot. How incoherent!

A Gale.—A severe easterly gale passed over Boston, on the 28th ult. which rose the tide to an unusual height, and overpowered several of the wharves. Much damage was done to the shipping, and two or three small vessels were sunk.

It is said, that on the evening of the execution of John Lechler in Lancaster, Pa. one John Wilson, a barber, stabbed two men so that they have since died.

Shipwreck.—The vessel mentioned in our last, as being wrecked near Sandy Hook, is ascertained to be the ship Savannah, Capt. Coles, from Liverpool bound to New-York. She ran ashore on the 26th ult. during the gale, and immediately went to pieces. The S. had a cargo of 500 tons and some crates, and was owned and insured in New York. Eleven bodies have been found, floated ashore, and were interred.

A woman, named Sally Spencer, died at Washington, last week, in consequence of a blow on the head from a brick bat, which she received from a person who has since absconded. Dr. Barber endeavoured to save her life by the operation of trepa-nning, but the wound was too fatal.

The Great Canal is now navigable from the Genesee river to Schoharie creek, a distance of 200 miles! and is expected to be open to Schenectady; 53 miles further, this season.

A convict, named Horace Rand, escaped from the State Prison, in Boston, (Mass.) on Saturday last. In the evening, a person was heard to enter the house of Mrs. Dowse, where he concealed himself until night, when he exchanged his clothes, stole a variety of articles of clothing and provisions, and went off.

The U. S. ship Peacock.—The Peacock has arrived at Norfolk in nine days from Havana. She has lost several officers and seven men, by the fever. Nine new cases have been reported since the ship anchored at Gracely Island, making the whole number on the sick list thirty-five.

Last week, a carpenter named Vermillion, hung himself with a bed-cord, in the garret of a house near the Marine Garrison, Washington city.

Mr. Andrew Winsor, an inhabitant of Carpen-ter's Landing, N. J. was drowned in the Delaware river, between Chester and Marcus Hook, on Wednesday week. It is said he had in his pockets about $300.—His body has not been found.

Another Defaulter.—Matthew H. Hale, of Richmond, Vir. Agent for the sale of Penitentiary Goods, has been discovered to be a public de-faulter to the amount of $32,000.

The trustees of the Massachusetts University, have appointed Mr. Nuttall, curator of their Botanic Garden, with a salary of five hundred dollars, and lecturer on Botany in the University, with all emoluments from the lectureship, which it is thought will exceed five hundred dollars.

Mrs. Cowing a widow lady, of Jeffery, N. H., on the 8th ult. being then 88 years old, had the pleasure of seeing at her own table her eight sons and four daughters, and their wives and husbands, except two—all in health and prosperity. The accounts add—few with her can say, that they have seen, of 26 children, 81 grand children, and 3 great grand children, (in all 110)—88 yet living and prosperous."

New Canal Project.—At a meeting of the citizens of Paterson, N. J. the appointment was concurred in of a committee to apply to the legislature for an act for opening a Canal, from the Delaware, near Easton, through the counties of Sussex, Morris, Bergen, and Essex, to the Passaic, to Paterson, and thence to Newark.

Squirrels.—A letter from Chillicothe, Ohio, of the 25th ultimo, says, that it is impossible to describe the havoc and destruction made by the grey and black squirrels. Whole fields of corn, of from five to ten acres, are wholly destroyed; not an ear left.
During a squirrel hunt of about a week, in the neighboring towns about Columbus, the first part of the month, near twenty thousand were killed.

Distressing Occurrence.—The Geneva Gazette of the 30th ult. states, that, on the Sunday preceding, Capt. Asa R. Swift, of Palmyra, eldest son of the late General John Swift, Mr. Ashbel Van Duzer of the same place, and Mr. Roswell Smith of Sodus, were drowned by the upsetting of a boat, in which they were attempting to cross Sodus Bay.

Great Mortality.—The bilious and typhus fevers appear to have made great ravages this season in Maryland. In the neighborhood of Darlington, where the greatest number of deaths is stated to have occurred, the Friends burying ground presented an awful memento of the general devastation.
No room having been left inside the enclosure for interring, they had commenced burying outside the paling.

On Sunday night last, the flour mill of Benjamin Ellicott & Co. about three miles from Baltimore, was destroyed by fire. About 200 barrels of flour were consumed—whole loss estimated at 10 or 12,000 dollars.

Mr. Cornelius M'Coy, of Norfolk, was inhumanly murdered as he was riding along the causeway at Poketty, by some unknown person. He was struck by two balls, and a third shivered to pieces a spoke of the wheel of his gig. He left an amiable wife and one child.

Beach Grass.—The Agricultural Society of Charleston have passed a resolution to procure from Massachusetts a quantity of plants of Beach Grass, for the purpose of attempting its cultivation on the sea-board, as a defence to the soil from injury by tides and storms.

Condé Raguet, Esq. American Consul for Rio de Janeiro, arrived at that city from Philadelphia, with his family, on the 8th Sept. and was immediately recognized by the Prince Regent.

The Governor of New-York has issued a proclamation, recommending the observance of the first Thursday in December, as a day of Thanksgiving and Prayer.

The New-Yorkers have generally returned to their business and homes, and the city is restored to its usual health, and general activity of business bustle.

The Worcester Spy proposes that silver medals, with appropriate devices, should be presented to Messrs. Cummings and M'Duffie, for their successful, though unintentional, efforts to render the practice of duelling ridiculous.

A stage was upset in Ohio, and the driver and several passengers badly bruised. A singular circumstance attending the accident was, that one of the passengers, a woman, was in pursuit of her husband, who had eloped from her, and the stage having just overtaken him, travelling on foot, when the accident occurred, he was the first to help her up when thrown on the road.

Accidents.—A man named Allen was lately drowned by falling accidentally into a mill pond near Battleborough, Vt. A boy was killed in the same neighborhood by falling on a pitchfork; and a child drowned by falling into a well.

Mail Robbery.—Letters robbed from the mail between Alexandria and Fredericksburg, Va. have been discovered near Dumfries, and circumstances transpired, that are expected to lead to a detection of the frequent depredations committed upon the mail in that vicinity during the last summer.

The Great Race.—The cashier of the U.
S. Bank at Washington has acknowledged the receipt of five thousand dollars each, from Mr. Harrison and Mr. Van Ranst, as forfeit money, on the race for $10,000 to be run by their horses on the Washington course on Wednesday the 22d inst.

LAW IN OHIO.—Two men were recently tried in Huron county, (Ohio) for the offence of tar-ring and feathering a third person, and fined by the Court recently five cents each. The man who suffered had abandoned his family and betaken himself to other women, and his two neighbors had taken upon themselves to distribute that justice which the law does not provide for similar offenders.

Frazer and Morrill, two noted gamblers, who had carried on business at Baltimore for a short time, but in so successful a way as nearly to ruin several young men, were brought before the Mayor of that city on Tuesday morning last, under $8 warrants. They were fined ten dollars in each case, and paid the whole amount $380 in specie.

Yellow Fever at New-Orleans.—A letter received from New-Orleans, mentions the death of the Hon. Eligius Fromentin, who died of the fever on the 6th inst, and his wife on the following day. The writer adds, as a proof of the panic occasioned by the fever, that the funeral of Judge Fromentin was attended by only seven persons besides the writer, and that of his wife by only three.

Piracy.—The brig Planter, Pratt, sailed from Matanzas on the 19th ult. for New-York, was boarded the same day by a pirate and robbed of her cargo of sugar and her sails. The captain was hung up several times, one of the sailors having asserted that he had money on board. She then bore away for Havana, and was spoke by the Steam Boat, and communicated the information.

A Rattlesnake was killed lately near Elizabeth city, N. C. by a negro man, measuring five feet, two and a half inches in length, nine and a quarter inches in circumference, and having nineteen rattles.
This enormous reptile had crawled very near the door of the negro, (whose cabiwas near the woods,) where his children were playing in the yard, when they accidentally discovered him.

The proprietors of one tenth of the capital stock of the Juniata Bank of Pennsylvania, have advertised a general meeting of the stockholders, to be held in the banking house at Lewistown, on the third Monday of the present month, for the purpose of adopting measures to close the concerns of the institution.

We received yesterday (says the Boston Daily Advertiser) from a friend in Salem, a present of a pear, which was one of six brought into that market weighing 8 3-4 lbs. and which measures 13 inches in circumference. It grew in the orchard of Mr. Nathaniel Burham of Essex, on a young tree, from which he gathered eleven bushels.

On Wednesday, the 30th of October, the Hon. John Adams, ex-president of the United States, entered his eighty-eighth year.

The Vermont Penitentiary has, during the last two months, yielded a net gain to the state, of $545 92 cents.

Another evidence of the importance of a single vote.—One of the charter officers of New-York, has been elected by a majority of one vote.

EMIGRATION.—No season within the last four years has furnished such an ingress of population to our western states and territories, as the present. In addition to the thousands from Europe, who have located there, the migrating mass seems again to have seized upon our New-England brethren, in so much that our streets are daily thronged with the ponderous covered waggons of the east, bearing not unfrequently, three generations within; and going, as Mr. Irvine would say, to "Ohio, Kentucky, or the Lord knows where." These wend their way round the Lake shore by land, to their ultimate destination; while the throng of young men, hale and hearty, who have plodded their way, "with knapsack slung," from the sober scenes of New-England, on foot, greet with heart-felt satisfaction

"the sail,
That idly waiting, flaps with every gale," and is ready to wait them over the billows of Erie, to their imaginary Canaan. Before such, the fore forests are rapidly disappearing, and the wilds of Michigan and Indiana, where so recently "Beast with man divided empire claimed," are many of them already waving with golden crops or scattered with flocks and herds.

The Evening Post

PHILADELPHIA.

Saturday, November 9, 1850.

By the New-York mail of this morning we have received the following intelligence:

Extract of a letter received per brig Marquis at New York, dated

CURACAO, Oct. 18.
Yesterday a meeting of the Council of the Governor, communicated the dispatches received from the King, relative to the relations of this island, and the Kingdom of the Netherlands of South America and Guiana, and the port open to these provinces under the provisions of the Treaty of 1808. This is equivalent to an acknowledgment of their Independence, and will be highly beneficial to this place, as we shall be

GREECE.—Gibraltar papers have received at Boston to the 13th of September, containing Turkish accounts of of the recent events in the Morea, and although it is pretended that the statement of a victory obtained at Mopylae is a fabrication; yet that the succeeded in a quarter, remote from celebrated pass, in not only checking Turkish army, which had penetrated and captured several places in the but had actually compelled them to in great haste towards Corinth, and during their flight they had sustained mense loss by the attacks of the and the depredations usually attend-invading and discomfited army in-

FOREIGN INTELLIGENCE.—By a dispatch Boston, London dates to the 23d of September, have been received. They contain (says the York Commercial Advertiser) information Zante and Semlin, of the decided success of Greeks over the Turks in the Morea, and the statement that Countsch Pacha, and Briene had both been defeated, and that the er had retreated to Larissa.

Referring to the recent negotiations at Con-tinople, the St. Petersburg Correspondent of of the 3d Sept. remarks, that if the the European Ambassadors are success-ducing the Porte to consent "to some and evacuations, which are necessary to the tenance of peace, all the Christians of the owe to this beneficent co-operation, a salutation which will not be endangered are, are stated in the Morning Chronicle, to be was to be conceded by Turkey to the ance, which, without depriving the Turk sovereignty, might enable the great powers terfere in cases of notorious cruelty and oppression.

THE OLIO.

"Variety's the very spice of life, That gives it all its flavour."

On the affection of fine names.

Who wants a wife? I know three sisters gay, Not vulgar Margerys, Janes, or Joans are they;
No—they have names enough to fill a tub—Miss Barbara, Juliana, Margaretta; Miss Leonora, Caroline, Janetta; And Miss Joanna, Seraphina—Grubb!

A gentleman having fallen into the river Ex, was mentioning the circumstance to Sir T—A—, and added, "as you may suppose, I was pretty wet." "Yes," replied the punning baronet, "I should think you were wet in the Ex-stream."

Canon of Criticism.—The Cardinal de Retz asked Menage one day to give him some idea of poetry, that he might be able to form a sort of judgment of the mass that was brought to him. "Sir," said Menage, "this is a matter that would occupy more time than you could spare; but I'll tell you what you may do—when ever they read any of their poems to you, say at a venture, 'That's very bad'—you'll seldom be wrong."

Comparison not Odious.—At the house of Madame la Duchesse de Maine, the company were one day amusing themselves by comparing and finding ingenious distinctions between one object and another. "What difference," said the Duchess to the Cardinal de Polignac, "is there between me and a watch?" "Madame," replied the Cardinal, "a watch makes the hours, and you make us forget them."

A Lady the other day was asked by an envious female acquaintance her age: "Really," said she, "I do not know, but I must be about thirty." "It is very extraordinary," replied the other with a sneer, "that you do not know your age." "I never count my years," said the Lady; "I am not afraid of losing a single year; none of my female friends will rob me of one."

In England it is well known that the Yankees are ridiculed with the name of Bumkins. An English lady on a tour through the northern part of this country, passing a field of pumpkins inquired what they were? Her companion replied that they were pumpkins. "Barbarous wretches!" exclaimed the lady, (mistaking the name for bumkins), "barbarous wretches, to bury their friends with their heads out of ground!"

At the late Lewis Assizes, a landlord brought some wine to a Gentleman dining in a private room, which he did not approve, and he requested it might be changed. The landlord expressed his surprise at this, as he said it was greatly admired by some gentlemen of the Bar, who were drinking it above stairs: "Aye," replied the other very coolly, "they are not Judges."

A worthy Antiquary was one day edifying the French academy with a monstrous long detail of the comparative price of commodities at different periods, when La Fontaine observed, "This man knows the price of every thing except time."

Rural Economy.—An experienced farmer of the Netherlands states, that an ounce of saltpetre dissolved in a pint of water, with an ounce of flour of sulphur, and scattered upon grain in a granary, is an infallible means of preventing it from spoiling.

P. ANCORA,

HAS to congratulate his numerous Patrons on the very extraordinary progress of his pupils, proving to a demonstration the complete success of his peculiar mode of instruction in those indispensable branches of police education, Drawing and Painting. He will produce from his pupils many instances of improvement from three months' tuition that will challenge competition with any others, taught by the usual method in twelve months; and when the extreme lowness of his terms is taken into consideration, he confidently anticipates a still further extension of public patronage. He begs to state he is now forming his winter classes for Ladies and Gentlemen, and requests an early application, as, after the classes are filled, he will be unable to extend his instructions.

PROPOSALS BY PARDON DAVIS, FOR PUBLISHING BY SUBSCRIPTION, THE PRINCIPLES OF THE Government of the United States, Adapted to the Use of Schools.

THIS work need only be announced, and its plan developed, to discover its utility and ensure its adoption and success. The work is to consist of the Constitution of each State, that of the United States, according to the latest amendments, and the Articles of confederation by which the States are connected; with a code of questions attached to each, the answers to which will lead the pupil to a critical investigation of the leading characteristics of the government of each state.

That is most proper for boys to learn which will be most useful for them, when they become men.

We seem almost to begin to think that professional men alone possess sufficient knowledge of the government to direct our public concerns. The reason is evident. The principles to be inculcated by this work are not sufficiently known except to them, but the general dissemination of it throughout the United States will furnish a work of reference to the whole of the principles by which they are governed, which will of course become accessible to every family: every citizen will thus see the relative situation in which he stands with respect to the nation, and feel his own importance in directing that government, which, without this attention, must degenerate into an instrument of tyranny, and eventually in despotism.

Philadelphia, Sept. 28, 1822.

The utility of a School book, such as Mr. Davis proposes to publish, in our opinion, admits of no doubt. A knowledge of the Constitutions of the several states, and of the articles of General Confederation, ought to form an essential part of the education of every freeman in the Union. No way can be more likely to diffuse and perpetuate this knowledge, than embodying it into a book to be read in common Schools. Early impressions are the most permanent. It is sincerely hoped the plan proposed will meet with due encouragement.

S. B. WYLIE, JOS. P. ENGLIS, SAMUEL W. CRAWFORD.

Grammar School, (University of Pennsylvania,) September 28, 1822.

SIR,—I am pleased to find that you are engaged in publishing "The Principles of the Government of the United States," in a form adapted to the use of Schools. Such a work cannot but be interesting to every class of the community.

The use of such a book in our Schools will render that important branch of Science familiar to boys, which is very imperfectly understood by a great portion of our citizens. Under these impressions I recommend the work, and shall endeavour to introduce it, in this department of the University.

I am yours, JAMES WILTANK.

Mr. PARDON DAVIS.

CONDITIONS.

Any person furnishing subscriptions for 12 copies, and becoming responsible for the payment, shall be entitled to two copies gratis.
